

stART Community Cultural Development Grant

Overview

The Arts Foundation for Tucson and Southern Arizona's stART Community Cultural Development Grant provides support to encourage neighborhood and/or project-based art endeavors focused on problem solving. Now in its second year, stART explores what impact these small infusions of funds can have on a community.

This funding is meant to help initiate or complete small projects that impact a local neighborhood or community. For example, funds may be used for paint to complete a mural, pay local artists to teach a free workshop in their neighborhood, or help cover material costs.

Award Amount: $300

Dates & Deadlines

- Wednesday, November 1, 2017 – Application Opens
- Friday, November 17, 2017 – stART Workshop
- Friday, December 1, 2017 (11:50pm) – Application Deadline

Eligibility

- Individuals, small groups or organizations with 501c3 status that have not received funding from the Arts Foundation or the Tucson Pima Arts Council in the last two grant cycles or this current year may apply. Priority is given to small group efforts rather than large, established organizations.
- Applicants must have been based in Southern Arizona for at least 1 year before applying.
- Projects must take place within the Southern Arizona area.
- Projects may already be in process, but must be completed by April 20, 2018.
- Funds may be used for marketing, supplies, or for artist or project coordinator fees, or honoraria for community partners directly involved in the project.
- Funds may not be used for fiscal sponsor administration costs, or University Facilities and Administrative (F&A) costs, or other "overhead."
