We have good news!

The Arts Foundation for Tucson and Southern Arizona and ON Media Publications have partnered up, and we wanted to share our exciting news: we are the proud sponsor of the 2017-2018 ON Media Arts Heroes!

The Arts Heroes represent people in our community who champion, support, and take part in the arts - whether it be on the stage, behind the scenes on the gallery floor, or in the seats. At The Arts Foundation, our mission is to advance artistic expression, civic participation, and equitable economic growth of our diverse community by supporting, promoting, and advocating for arts and culture in our region. The Arts Hero is one way we can call attention to and highlight those throughout Southern Arizona who are also working toward this goal, and we're calling on you to help!

ON Media Publications is accepting nominations for Arts Heroes every month. Every month, one Arts Hero will be selected and featured in the ON Media program book seen by over 400,000 art lovers and consumers throughout Southern Arizona. This program book will provide a place to tell the incredible story of each Art Hero and applaud their hard work.

This sponsorship is giving us, The Arts Foundation, an opportunity to elevate the arts in Southern Arizona and elevate the conversation around the importance of arts and culture in our region. We look forward to what will come in the next year, and are excited to read about the Art Heroes you will nominate.

Thank you for being a part of this new endeavor, and thank you for your continual support of the arts in Tucson and Southern Arizona!
