stART

The Arts Foundation for Tucson and Southern Arizona invites short video application submissions to the stART Mini-Grant, which provides awards of $500 – $1,000 through two alternate tracks of support.

1. The Community Impact track provides financial support to individuals, groups, or organizations for projects that will positively impact a community through an artistic endeavor.
2. The Artist Resource track provides financial support to artists for whom a specific, practice-related capital resource will make an impact on their artistic practice.

Safos Dance Theater and Live Theater Workshop featured on "Arizona Spotlight"

Fast-forward to -22:45 for interview

Mark McLemore (AZPM/NPR) hosted a roundtable talk with three Tucson arts presenters about "summer survival strategies". When faced with the seasonal loss of snowbird and college student audiences, how do these groups prepare and persevere during the hot summer months?

Representatives from The Invisible Theatre, Safos Dance Theater, and Live Theater Workshop share their opinions and plans...

About News & Opps.

The Arts Foundation for Tucson and Southern Arizona News & Opps provides information for artists including calls for exhibitions, commissions, fellowships, employment and free professional development training/workshops, and educational opportunities. News & Opps does not announce exhibit openings, fee-based opportunities, programming, workshops or performances, fundraising events, or commercial art venues*. News & Opps is a free service highlighting submissions received by the Arts Foundation for Tucson and Southern Arizona that are aligned with its mission.

Submission Format: Please limit each news item to three lines of text and include it in the body of an email, along with a website address. In lieu of a website address, you may include your email address and/or telephone number. Images are included rarely and solely at the discretion of The Arts Foundation. Please allow 4 days for submissions to appear on the website. Items run 4 weeks, unless otherwise stated. Send entries to: info@artsfoundtucson.org. The Arts Foundation for Tucson and Southern Arizona is not responsible for the accuracy of information sent from outside parties to News & Opps. Please contact the source of the information with any questions regarding announcements.

*Grantee Spotlight may list fee-for-service events or performances that are supported by grants from the Arts Foundation for Tucson and Southern Arizona. We will make every effort to highlight at least one event or performance from every grantee each fiscal year.
