Artist Registration Now Open!

We are proud to announce that the Open Studio Tours have been approved for funding from the City of Tucson and Pima County! Registration for all artists is available now through September 23.

Please choose the application that aligns with your studio or exhibit location. If you are an artist looking for a studio to participate in, note that on your submitted application.

If your location will have multiple artists, each artist must register individually or their information will not be included in marketing.

As a reminder, each year requires a new application and applications from previous years are not used.

About News & Opps.

The Arts Foundation for Tucson and Southern Arizona News & Opps provides information for artists including calls for exhibitions, commissions, fellowships, employment and free professional development training/workshops, and educational opportunities. News & Opps does not announce exhibit openings, fee-based opportunities, programming, workshops or performances, fundraising events, or commercial art venues*. News & Opps is a free service highlighting submissions received by the Arts Foundation for Tucson and Southern Arizona that are aligned with its mission.

Submission Format: Please limit each news item to three lines of text and include it in the body of an email, along with a website address. In lieu of a website address, you may include your email address and/or telephone number. Images are included rarely and solely at the discretion of The Arts Foundation. Please allow 4 days for submissions to appear on the website. Items run 4 weeks, unless otherwise stated. Send entries to: info@artsfoundtucson.org. The Arts Foundation for Tucson and Southern Arizona is not responsible for the accuracy of information sent from outside parties to News & Opps. Please contact the source of the information with any questions regarding announcements.

*Grantee Spotlight may list fee-for-service events or performances that are supported by grants from the Arts Foundation for Tucson and Southern Arizona. We will make every effort to highlight at least one event or performance from every grantee each fiscal year.
